

Rubies

Music and Lyrics by Alicia Jo Rabins/Girls in Trouble

VERSE 1

Like a merchant ship, strong and wide,

gold and oranges deep inside

more than rubies, more than pearls,

the one I love.

With purple silk and tapestry,
she weaves a blanket to cover me
more than rubies, more than pearls,
the one I love.

The world is woven through us

C G C G Em
and I cannot forget

Em G C
how her fingers hold the thread.

G D/F# G C

She buys a field, she plants a vine come the autumn she makes her wine
 more than rubies, more than pearls,
 the one I love.

VERSE 4

Let it rain, let it storm
 she keeps her babies safe and warm
 more than rubies, more than pearls,
 the one I love.

Grace can lie and beauty's vain
 oh but she calls me by my name
 more than rubies, more than pearls,
 the one I love.

 The world is woven through us

 I swear I won't forget

Em G C G
 how her fingers hold the thread.
